

Mitchell-Klink Wedding Attended by 200 Guests

Before an altar beautifully decorated with large bowls of white chrysanthemums with a background of palms, ferns and white candelabra, Katherine Joan Klink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Klink, became the bride Sunday of Donald Cooper Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Mitchell, thus uniting two prominent Torrance families.

Rev. W. F. Roloff officiated at the afternoon ceremony performed in the presence of 200 wedding guests assembled at Central Evangelical church. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white satin and net with shirred bodice, long sleeves and train. Her finger tip veil was draped from a halo of orange blossoms and she carried a cascade bouquet of bouvardia and lilies of the valley with detachable corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Attendants in Blue Miss Laurella Lancaster, attired in a blue and grey gown and carrying tallman roses, served as maid of honor. The bride's other attendants all wearing blue taffeta gowns and carrying attractive cascade bouquets of gerbera shading from pink to coral were Jean Smith, Mary Peekham Cowan, Patty Post and Dorothy McMillan Edwards. Little Ann Marie Bishop, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Bishop, in a dainty blue frock and carrying an old fashioned bonnet made of Cecile Brunner roses with loops of blue ribbon to match her dress, was flower girl.

Tom Galvin of San Diego served as the groom's best man and ushers were J. R. Klink, Jr., brother of the bride, Robert McNally, Phillips Brooks and Jim Kennedy. Preceding the ceremony, Mme. Teala Bellini played several piano selections and the accompaniment for Walter Hanson who sang.

Guild Hall Reception A reception for 200 wedding guests immediately followed at Guild Hall where Mrs. Klink received her guests in a blue crepe ensemble with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Mitchell, mother of the groom, wore burgundy velvet and orchids.

The table, decorated in its entirety with gardenia and maiden hair fern, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. Mesdames R. J. Deifinger and Iola Young poured.
